LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

-The Canadian Order of Odd Fellows now in session voted down a motion to provide for the eligibility of colored men for membership in the order.

—The law increasing the liquor tax in Dakota is now in force. The retail liquor license has heretofore been $300 per annum. Under the new law the lowest tax that can be imposed is $500, and may be placed as high as $1,600, at the option of the County Commissioners. There are 25 saloons in Yankton, and after July 1 there will probably not be more than five. —A collision between two freight trains near Havre de Grace, on the Philadelphia division of the Haltimore and Onio road yesterday, resulted in instantly killing Joseph McMean and wrecking several cars, two of them loaded with provisions for Johnstown sufferers, it is claimed by the train hands that the telegraph operator was at fault in giving wrong signals.

—An attempt was made Wednesday night to wreck the St. Louis and Pacific vestibule train which left Chicago at 9 o'clock for St. Louis. The scene of the dastardly act was a culvert at a point about 65 miles from Chicago. Ties were wedged in the culvert in such a manner that they stood half a foot above the track between the rails. The engine struck the obstruction but did sot leave the rails, and beyond the damage to the track no harm was done.

-The President yesterday made the following appointment: Mark D. Fowler, of Minnesota, to be supervising inspector of steam vessels for the ifith district, St. Paul, Minn. Mr. Fowler succeeds George Hays, removed. He is a veteran of the war and is an old steamboat captain. He held the office for six years and was the first officer of the steamboat inspection service removed by President Cleveland. He is a personal friend of Secretary Windom.

James Deavin and Charles Tomavson were lynched at Corydon, Ind., yesterday morning. They were taken from the jail there by a mob of 200 men and removed to the bridge west of town, where an effort to make them confess failed, and they were strung up. The two men attempted to rob the residence of James Le-May, near there, Friday night last. Le-May resisted and was shot, but not fatally wounded. A young woman, a niece of Mr. Le-May, was also seriously infified by a bullet.

The steamer City of Peking arrived yester-day from Hong Kong via Yokohoma. The Shanghat Courter of May 10 contains news which the latter received from a correspondent at Chang King to the effect that Lu Chow, a city of some importance in Upper Pangtaze, was reported as being nearly destroyed by fire a month previous. Seven out of the eight gates of the city are said to have been destroyed, and the loss of life, burned and trampled to death, is estimated at 10,000.

trampled to death, is estimated at 10,000.

The steamer Alene, from Kingston, Jamaica, June 6, brings intelligence substantiating the London cable reports of Hippolyte's victory and Legitime's deteat. Chief Officer Williams of the Alene said that Legitime had sought the protection of the American consul at Port au Prince. Hippolyte's officers had entered Port au Prince and taken possession of the town. The victorious warrior, however, Mr. Williams said, was not popular with the people generally and could probably never be President of the Black Republic by the vote of the inhabitants. A man named Marrann, Legitime's Minister of Foreign Affairs, or an ex-President of the Republic, whose name Mr. Williams could not recall, would doubtless appear as the next candidate for the presidency of Hayti.

CATTLE MARGINS OBLITERATED.

Facts of Interest Concerning Roman and Swiss Cheese.

THE CONSUMPTION YEARLY GROWING

OFFICE OF PITTSBUEG DISPATCH, THURSDAY, June 13, 1889. Through receipts of cattle are the smallest this week for years past. The reason is obvious. The washouts on the Pennsylvania railroads have diverted a large amount of through stock to the New York roads. It appears that local demands hold up to the appears that seem the densities from up to the average. The quality of cattle received this week has not been up to the standard, and hence there has been a decline of 10c per cwt on last week's prices, except for the few loads which met the requirements of our home butchers. Smooth, butcher cattle from 1,200 to 1,300 pounds were in demand, and more of this kind than were on the market would have found ready sale at last week's prices.

It will be seen by the accompanying report that hog receipts were less than one-half of last and the previous week's receipts. Notwithstanding light run, prices failed to advance to any malerial degree. In fact, they fell off Monday and only recovered the lost ground to-day, became of light receipts. Hogs sold here lower than at Chicago in the fore part of the week. The range to-day is $4.550 \(\) 4.60, choice light hogs being in best demand. Sheep and lambs, though in lighter supply than for months past barely held their own with last week's prices.

Not at All Cemorthus. ound roady sale at last week's prices.

Not at All Comforting. A leading drover who for years has been operating at Herr's Island, said recently, "Live stock markets of late furnish very few grains of comfort to dealers. For the past week or two I doubt if any man who buys cattle in Chicago and sells it here has been able to come out even. Something is made on hogs, but nothing on cattle. The dressed beef firms are nothing on cattle. The dressed beef firms are ready to pay more than we drovers can afford to pay. Armour's and Swift's go into markets and buy whatever their trade demands, at prices, often, which would be ruinous to us, as we could not get the same here. I doubt if there is any profit at present to the dressed beef firms, so far as their trade here is con-cerned. They make their money in smaller places."

Some items on the Sweitzer cheese trade were recently gathered from one of our leading obbers which are here jotted down. The volume of trade is scarcely up to last season, and prices are full 3c per pound lower. The trade a the city and immediate vicinity has declined fully 25 per cent, which the dealer referred to above attributed to the closing up of so many saloons, which are among the best patrons of this industry. Our jobbers here, who control the product of many Ohlo and Wisconsin fac-tories, have been pushing trade into new fields, and, while margins are closer than ever before, the total handled by Pittsburg firms, will show very little, if any, decline in volume from last utalian cheese is sold in this market in greater quantity than ever before. This ore it is marketable, and is only used by ians and at the larger hotels. A new dis-tion in our Italian population was de-oped by this interview with the jobber of er and Limburger cheese. Said he: inn population is gaining every year, and is sified as lemon or Boman and railroad lians. The former come from the southern Italians. The former come from the southern part of Italy, and are heavy consumers of Roman cheese, which they use in soups and macaroni. Of this choese we are now handling I5,000 pounds annually. Five years ago we handled about 1,000 pounds. A decade ago this Roman cheese was an unknown quantity in Pittsburg markets. Railroad Italians generally hall from the more northerly parts of Italy, bordering on the Alps and Switzerland. In the native land they acquired a taste for Sweitzer cheese, and are among our heaviest customers is this line after the saloons. You can readily classify the Italian population by the kind of cheese to which they take."

MARKETS BY WIRE

Wheat Active and Nervous-All Option Higher Except December-Corn and Onts Wenker-Hog Products Oniet and Slightly

Lower. CHICAGO—A large business was again transacted in wheat to-day, and the feeling developed was quite unsettled and as nervous as yesterday. The market, too, showed consider-able strength. June was quiet most of the secsion and closed 1/c lower than yesterday. July opened weak and 16% lower, then steadily advanced 13%, receded 36%, again sold up 3%, eased off slightly and closed about 3% higher than yesterday. August and September opened a shade lower, advanced 114@13c and closed ic higher. December was 5c lower at the opening, advanced 1%c and closed 1%c higher than yesterday.

The market showed more strength, on the whole, than yesterday and closed firm. Rumors of fair export buying at the seaboard and more inquiry here and in the neighboring markets, together with unfavorable crop reports from the Northwest, were the reasons assigned.
Besides the talk of manipulation had a tendency to affect the market, though there probably was nothing more in this gossip than that the market had been oversold and that shorts were available to cover espacially as it was believed anxious to cover, especially as it was believed that the new crop of winter wheat would not be marketed as early as was expected. Eastern parties and St. Louis were reported as having bought freely. Rain is wanted in the Northwest, and the weather bulletin reported clear weather in that section, though private advices reported a passing shower, while in the reported. A moderate business was transacted in corn, and the feeling developed was rather easier, slightly lower prices being established. The easier tone was attributed mainly to the fine weather, which had a weakening influence on the more distant futures. The market opened the more distant futures. The market opened 1/46/4c lower than the closing prices of yesterday, fluctuated within 1/4c range, and closed 1/46/4c lower than yesterday.

Outs were fairly active, but weaker. Prices for September declined 1/46/4c, which was fairly maintained until the close. July received fair support after a decline of 1/46/4c, and rallied to outside figures.

A quiet and rather dull feeling prevailed in the market for hog products. Offerings were fair, and the demand from all sources was limited. July and September monopolized the business.

COMFORT FOR THE DESPONDING. The Paralysis Caused by the Conemaugh Flood Rapidly Disappearing.

RAPID TRANSIT AND REAL ESTATE

There was the usual amount of talk or Fourth avenue yesterday, but it was of the kind that people affect when they have little else to do. It was airy and miscellane ous. This should not be taken, however, to mean that nothing was going on; for it is a fact, often noted with admiration, that the average Pittsburger seldom boasts of his business achievements. As Longfellow puts it, he is willing to "labor and to wait" for his reward, feeling certain that it will come in

One of the topics discussed by a little group of Southside gentlemen was the necessity for rapid transit in that part of the city, as pointed out in THE DISPATCH. They all agreed that it would be a great benefit, as it would build up business and increase the value of property. A Temperanceville man who was present added his testimony: "It is a great mistake," said he, "to think that nearly everybody living along Sawmill run is employed in the neigh-boring iron mills. A great many of them work or do business in Pittsburg, and they keenly feel the need of quicker transit than they have. The natural attractions of the place are unsur-passed. All that is needed to build it up is the adoption of a system of conveyance which would transport passengers to and from the city in five or ten minutes instead of twice or three times as long, as is the case now. This would give us such a boost that your fancy places in the East End would have to hustle to places in the Land. From rapid transit to real estate is but a step, their relationship being of the most inti-mate nature. "I see it stated," remarked a prominent agent, "that loans at 4½ per cent on city realty are nothing unusual. There is some confusion here which should be cleared up. The original statement referred to home money; the contradiction is not specific, and probably implies Eastern capital, which, I am aware, has been placed here in small amounts at the rate in question; but I think it would be hard to point out more than two or three in-stances in which local capital was involved. It is a very low rate, and is accepted only in cases where the security is undoubted. This speaks well for the estimation in which real estate is held by capitalists, who are familiar with all the conditions of the market. It is ridiculous to suppose they would risk so much if values were abnormally inflated, or if the demands were not in a measure adjusted to the supply." "Any news to-day?" was the inquiry put to a gentleman who came up at this moment, one who dabbles in lands and houses, and knows about all that is going on in that branch of trade, "Nothing particular," he replied. "I just heard a rumor of a resale by principals of a business property on Penn avenue at about $10,000 ad, vance over the price paid three months ago. The movement in that direction seems to be growing. I am dickering for a house and lot on that avenue, and expect to get it. The cen-tral part of the city is overrun with business.

It must find an outlet somewhere, and Penn equal to the emergency. Armies were organized and a navy was called into existence in a short time. When the struggle ended we were short time. When the struggle ended we were the greatest military power on earth. Chicago is another case in point. The great fire there would have paralyzed any community in the Old World. But the citizens were equal to the occasion. Instead of repining they went to work to repair the damages. I have been told that a number of contracts for new buildings were made while the conflagration was still in progress. Such pluck must succeed. It will be the same in the flooded district. The vanished towns will speedily reappear, and they will be more attractive than before. We have they made only a temporary impression. Nothing short of a calamity involving the whole country could put us on our backs and Talk at the Exchange was less confident. Brokers were in a quandary as to the outlook for stocks. They drew encouragement, how-ever, from the fact that, in spite of the prevailing duliness, prices are so well sustained. "We are ready for anything that may come along." said a broker. "We are eating feathers now; after a while we will come to chicken." Bids and offers were hardly within telephone distance, which led Captain Barbour to remark:

"When I can get the boys within a quarter or an eighth of each other I can generally make them do something, but when they are separated by dollars and halves I feel less hopeful than I do of the success of the prohibitory

STOCKS REACT.

-Bonds Firmer. NEW YORK, June 18 .- The stock market today was comparatively quiet, less than a dozen stocks furnishing about seven-eighths of the entire business done. The temper of the dealings was reactionary throughout the day, and while the final changes are generally insignificant, they are in all but a few instances in the direction of lower figures. The buying in general was good and the feeling was rather bullish, but the realizing tendency was uppermost for the time being, and the offerings of stock vere sufficient to sag the list off slowly. The only stock showing any real animation was New England, in which there was marked speculative buying, though, as usual with the deals in that stock, the street is somewhat mys tified by the movement. There was a spurt of deals in that stock, the street is somewhat mystified by the movement. There was a spurt of over 10 per cent in the price of New Haven from its last recorded sale, and it touched 26%, which was said to be on the passage of the bill in the Connecticut Legislature permitting the road to increase its capital stock, which was interpreted in some quarters as equivalent to permission to purchase New England. But asside from that, the news of the day in regard to the latter road was very favorable. The stock moved up steadily and rose over 3 per cent, finally closing at the best figure.

The Coalers were much less prominent in the market than of late. The same may be said of the Grangers. The news from the West was of a neutral character, and the operators in these stocks seem to be waiting. There were no marked movements in the low-price shares, and the trusts with the exception of lead were quiet. The selling in Lead Trust was very marked, and the price was forced about 1 per cent. The opening was quiet and firm, but the realizations with some help from the bears imparted a reactionary tone to the dealings immediately, and while the Chicago Gas showed any marked wakness and New England and Big Four were strong, the list slowly sagged off from the first prices and remained below them throughout the day.

Jersey Central and Sugar Trusts later led the decline, but the movements were generally for insignificant fractions. New England continued to rise steadily and acted as a check upon the decline in the rest of the list, and toward the close there was a sumewhat better tone developed in the general list, but the early losses were not recovered and the market at the close was still barely steady at fractional declines for the day. The final changes are generally in the direction of lower figures, but the only important difference is in New England, which is up 3½ per cent.

The dealings in railroad bonds were comparatively large, reaching $2,158,000, but as in shares a few issues furnished the greater portion of the business. Richmond and Allegheny seconds contributed $255,000; Denver and Rio Grande fives, $16,000, and Denver and Rio Grande fives, $16,000 and Denver and Rio Grande fours, $110,000 to the grand total. There was, however, more decided strength to the market than during the past few days, and the proportion of important advances increased. Minnapolis and St. Louis seconds rose 6, to 50 and Toledo, Ann Arbor and Grand Trunk firsts 3, to 115.

In the Orphans' Court yesterday David E. Pritchard was appointed temporary guardian of his leyear-oid nephew. William H. Pritchard.
